

3 - IMAGE AND DATA RELEASE TERM

I, _____ and all the members of my registered team, listed below and named individually, their friends, assistants, family members and other people directly and/or indirectly linked to this team and its members, unconditionally accept being published through photos, films and interviews on radio, newspapers, magazines, television and other media for informational, promotional, advertising or any other types of publicity relevant to the BRAZIL 135 Ultramarathon Race, or other events organized by the company BRAZIL 135 Ltda, in any other time and format without incurring any burden on the organizer, sponsors, supporters, promoters or the media outlets themselves.

The members of the registered teams are responsible for instructing their members on this provision, exempting the organizer from costs for this purpose and from future liability for non-compliance with this provision. I declare that there is no penalty from national and international sports bodies, and I am able to participate in this event.

After reading this image release form and understanding its terms, I understand that I am giving up substantial rights through my signature, which I do freely and voluntarily, without any coercion, in the presence of two instrumental witnesses.
